Information Collection Statement

South Perth Investments trading as Corefleet respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information.

The Privacy Act requires us to tell you when we collect personal information and how we will use it.

Personal information is information about you, such as your name and address.

We generally collect and use the personal information we need to complete business transactions with you as well as providing you with ongoing customer support. Therefore we have recorded your details so we can contact you in future.

We may use your information to send you our publications. If you would prefer that we did not use your details this way, please contact our Privacy Compliance Officer whose details appear below.

Corefleet shares personal information with its related companies in the Sime Darby Group both in and outside Australia.

The sorts of organisations outside the Sime Darby to which we typically disclose personal information include the following:

- a) Service providers (e.g. businesses to which we rent vehicles, maintenance work and mobile servicing, mailing houses, printers, auditors, debt collection agencies, process servers, lawyers etc.);
- b) State government authorities; and
- c) Your insurance company.

You can access most personal information that Corefleet holds about you. Sometimes that will not be possible but if that is the case you will be told why. A fee may apply.

If at any time your details change please contact Corefleet or if you would like to access your personal information please contact our Privacy Officer whose details appear below:
